Defendants.

On October 31, 2024, Plaintiff Emily Cohen filed a motion for an extension of time to file for in forma pauperis status without providing any of the required financial information to establish her indigency. The Court granted Cohen an extension until December 15, 2024 to file the required documentation. [ECF No. 77]. On that date, she filed a motion styled as a Motion for Leave to File IFP. [ECF No. 78]. Notably she still did not provide any financial affidavit or documentation to establish her qualification under the statute. See Fed. R. App. P. 24(a) (requiring a party seeking in forma pauperis status to attach an affidavit providing details establishing “the party’s inability to pay or to give security for fees and costs”). In accordance with the Court’s previous Order and directive, Plaintiff’s Current and Successive Motions to proceed in forma pauperis are DENIED. The other relief sought in the motion is DENIED. Cohen may seek in forma pauperis status with the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit. See Fed. R. App. P. 24(a)(5).

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated this 3rd day of January, 2025.

STEPHANIE M. ROSE, CHIEF JUDGE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
